Former-Postmaster-General Will Marry English Woman of Thirty He Has: Known Several Years.

Gen. Thomas L. James, President of the Lincoln National Bank and the Lincoln Safe Deposit Company, is the latest victim of the matrimonial miwhich has lately affected Senators Depew. Platt and Stewart. Gen. James, who is seventy-two years old, is to wed Miss Edith Colbourne, of Stratford-on-Avon. Miss Colbourne is thirty years old.

Miss Colbourne will be Gen. James's I. Freeburn, by whom he had three children. Of these children but one survives. She is Miss Harriet Weed James. Gen. James's second wife was his first wife's eister. She was the widow of Dr. Bardeen, and died Feb. 6 last

Gen. James and Miss Colbourne met at Stratford-on-Avon several years ago. She visited this country two years ago as the guest of Gen, and Mrs. James. She is a typical English gentlewoman. Her father, William Gardner Colbourne, was formerly Mayor and is now an Alderman at Stratford-on-Avon. His properties in-clude the famous Red Horse Hotel, at

Gen. James has been a prominent figure in the public eye for many years He was born in Utica in March He owned and published several country newspapers, and in 1861 entered the Customs Service in New York. He was appointed Postmaster of New York by President Grant in 1873, and was continued in office by President Hayes. He declined at various times the Collectorship of this port, the office of Postmaster-General, and in 1880 the Republican nomination for Mayor. In 1881 he entered the Cabinet of President Garfield as Postmaster-General and served ten months, In 1882 he retired from public office and entered the banking business.

he is a stockholder and director in several railroads, the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and the West-cott Express Company.

The wedding will take place probably next August. Whether the ceremony will be performed on this side of the water or at Stratford is as yet unsettled. In addition to his banking interests

I do not mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure can turn bony joints into flesh again. That is impossible. But it will drive from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling, and then that is the end of Rheumatism. I know this so well that I will furnish for a full month my Rheumatic Cure on trial. I cannot cure all cases within a month. It would be unreasonable to expect that: But most cases will yield within 30 days. For ten weeks three hundred young on Twenty-third street, have been conducting a secret search for Margaret Dwyer, of No. 87 West Sixteenth street, an employee in the store for eighteen years. Despairing at their futile efforts they decided to make public the strange disappearance of their chum to-day:

druggist in your vicinity so that you can secure six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Rheumant of the chum to-day:

Miss Dwyer has but one relative in New York, Matthew Dwyer, her brother, who for many years has been steward of the Manhattan Club. Mr. Dwyer said to-day that his sister disappeared from her boarding-house on Sixteenth street on Aug. 27. A week later she returned to the boarding-house and ransacked her trunk. Mrs. Bogartus, mistress of the boarding-house, endeavored to retain her, as she knew of the search being made for her. Before she could call assistance, however, the woman had disappeared again and has not been seen since.

This is what Julia Butler, a pretty her home in Cohoes, N. Y., a few days ago, said to-day to Magistrate Zeller in the Harlem Court. She was arrested last night by Detectives McAvoy, and Levy, who recognized her at One Hunand .Twenty-third street and Eighth avenue as a girt for whom a general alarm had been sent out.

The girl admitted that she had run away from home with the intention going on the stage. Last week she had witnessed a road company present "Life in a Great City" at a Cohoes local play-house and immediately concluded that a theatrical life would suit her.

Magistrate Zeller held the prisoner until to-morrow, when it is expected her mother will be here to take her home.
